

7/6/13

West Elk Clients,

First of all, thank you for your choosing West Elk Outfitters to assist you on your Colorado hunting excursion.

We are providing a list of things that you should bring and be prepared for as well. List is only of things that you need while in the field.

Archery Hunters Bring:

Bow, Arrows, Bow Case, Release, Broadheads, Camo, light and medium clothing for warm and cooler weather, light rain parka or jacket, Boots with stability for walking uneven terrain (waterproof preferably), Rangefinder if you have one, lighter, small backpack to pack your food and things for the day, Any survival gear that you choose to carry, Headlamp with spare batteries, Water bottle (16oz or more), Binoculars, Camera (optional).

Rifle Hunters Bring:

Gun, Ammo, Gun Sling, Blaze orange hat (not blaze camo), Blaze orange vest, Clothing for freezing temps, clothing for 70 degree weather, snow/mud boots with good support, Rangefinder (optional), backpack, Survival gear that you choose to carry, Headlamp with spare batteries, Water bottle (16oz or more), Shooting sticks (optional), Binoculars, Camera (optional),

Lion Hunters:

High quality waterproof hiking boots 400+ grams insulation, gaiters, good moisture wicking socks- liners and wool long underwear, pants-mid weight wool shirts, layering pieces, flannel, wool outer shirts, vest, mid weight coat, heavy parka, coveralls (while on atvs/snowmobiles) heavy and light gloves, neck/face covering, hat with ear covering, rain suit or waterproof outerwear, personal toiletries and medications, a day pack containing extra ammo, camera, small knife, headlamp w/extra batteries, fire starter kit, refillable water bottles, license and hunter safety card & CO on-line ed course card

We look forward to hunting with you all.

Thank you & Best Regards
Jerad Cotten (Owner)
West Elk Outfitters LLC
PO Box 262
Crawford, CO 81415
970-921-3029 home/office
970-640-9461 cell